The Value of Advent

By Pastor David Hammer

Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect. Matthew 24:44 EHV

While the secular world races to celebrate a secular Christmas as soon as possible, the Church has always paused to first mark Advent before the Twelve Days of Christmas that begin on December 25. Advent is a season of anticipation and of preparation and teaches us to be patient for the future and the good we know is coming (be it celebrating our Savior's birth or of His eventual return in glory).

Historically, Advent was a penitential preparatory season similar to Lent. The color was purple to signify both repentance and the royal color of the coming King. A Scandinavian tradition from among the Swedish Lutherans was to use blue for Advent and as other liturgical reforms were accepted after Vatican II, the use of blue became more common among Lutherans and also other liturgical Christians. Blue highlights the lectionary themes of anticipation and hope and sets the season apart from Lent.

Even with a less prominent focus on penitence, Advent remains a bit more subdued and restrained in tone and style. We do add some decorations, but not to the extent of a celebratory season like Christmas. One of our additions is the Advent wreath and its arrangement of four candles to count the weeks of Advent and symbolize the approach of the Coming One. The candle colors match the parament choice. If purple is still used, there are three purple candles and one pink (to mark a week of joy in that otherwise penitential season). If, however, blue is the chosen color, 4 blue candles are commonly used, although, as at ESLC, sometimes the pink candle is retained for the 3rd week of Advent.

In time, the expectation of Advent is fulfilled in the coming of Christmas when we move to the celebration of the victory of the True Light, born into a world darkened by sin. God Himself visits us in our darkness. Heaven and earth are to be renewed by God's coming. We change the paraments to white, remove the subdued restraints of worship, add more greenery, and rejoice that a Savior was born for us!

As for our midweek Advent series that will carry over into the Christmas Eve Family service, this year's theme is based on Isaiah 60 and employs Phillips Brooks's cherished hymn "O Little Town of Bethlehem" (LSB 361).

Isaiah famously promises that "the glory of the Lord shall be revealed" (Isaiah 40:5). In chapter 60, this glory explodes with radiant color. Divine glory rises upon Zion, who is addressed as a woman throughout chapter 60. She is quite the lady to behold!

Brooks's masterpiece beautifully describes Bethlehem on a December night. The hymn moves back and forth from a description of Christmas to the meaning of Christmas. It ends with the prayer, "O come to us, abide with us, our Lord Immanuel!" (st. 4).

When you connect Isaiah 60 to "O Little Town of Bethlehem," what happens? A wonderful weaving together of biblical hope and Christian hymnody.

Join us at 7pm on Wednesday evenings!

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. John 1:14 EHV

Deaconess' Musings

By Deaconess Holly Cox

Never Me.

"It's not about you."

Words that, while perhaps a bit blunt, are a daily necessity. And in reality...it's quite true.

It's not about me. It's never been about me. It's never going to be about me.... or you.

It's all about Jesus.

What does it say that "it's all about Jesus" change for us, in us, and from us?
(I'll give you a hint, but it should be quite obvious.) Only everything changes.

I think, as good Christians within the Lutheran tradition, we are quite confident in saying Jesus did it all for me (or you) and that we bring nothing to the "table" in terms of deserving/earning salvation and forgiveness. On account of Christ's death and resurrection, we now stand fully forgiven and made right in the sight of God our Creator. Eternal life was granted to us through the waters of our baptisms and we now live in the full hope of the world and age to come.

So, what? What's the big deal about all of this?

It's no longer about us (it never was about us to begin with, being dead in our sins and all – Romans 6:23), but about what Jesus did for us. And now we live our lives...for others.

So, what? What about others?

Your life – actions, words, behaviors – now becomes a witness to the world around you. This world, full of sorrow, pain, brokenness, confusion, anger, apathy, does not know the Jesus that set you free. This world sees no need for the Christ who paid the steep price for its very sin. This world does not understand why. They see evil and call it good. They see the good and call it evil.

But you, dear brother and sister, know why. You have seen the difference Jesus makes. You know and rejoice in the Lord who will one day wipe away every tear and make all things new (Revelation 7:15ff). You rest in the blessed assurance that your sins are forgiven.

Show them. Show the cold, unbelieving world that this Jesus, whom has claimed you and whose name you claim, makes a difference in your life. Show them that this Christ, the God made Man who dared to love the world that He died for it. That He did not stay dead, but rose back to life for them. Not just you. Not just your family. Not just your church. For the world.

It's not about you. And that's ok. It's about Jesus for you and for you to show to the world.

While we yet breathe, we have work to do. Confident in our Savior's saving forgiveness, we turn to a world lost within its own self and proclaim Jesus in our words and in our daily actions.

May it always be all about Jesus and never me...or you.
Blessed Advent to All.

Comfort Dog News

Seth enjoying all the love from these Marines

The Comfort Dog team continues our regularly scheduled community visits in addition to those extra adventures Lutheran Church Charities (LCC) sends our way! One such opportunity was a visit to the Marine Corps Security Force Battalion in Kings Bay, GA to spend time with the Marines and Navy personnel who are based there. Their main job is to safeguard our nation's nuclear weapons. We were joined by 4 other LCC K9 Comfort Dog Teams - Always, Faith, Moriah, and Zoara from North Carolina, South Carolina and Florida.

Our time there was such a blessing! We met with many of the servicemen/women and civilians working there. We also attended a tag football game called the "Turkey Bowl". It was the Marines against the Navy sailors for a best of 3. It ended up being just 2 games because the Navy beat the Marines in the first two.

While they were playing tag football, we met with many sailors and Marines who were watching the game or were there to support their fellow service men. When we arrived with our Comfort Dogs, we were quickly surrounded by so many of them who wanted to meet the dogs. We learned that eighty percent of the service members are under the age of 23, are far from home, and are often unable to return to their families during the holidays.As they started petting the dogs, they told us how much they missed their own dogs, their families, their friends... You could see by the smiles on their faces just how appreciative they were that we were there. In fact, they wanted to know when we were coming back! We also gave out many of the "thank you for your service" cards made by Lutheran School children and our team. After the games were over, we enjoyed hamburgers and hot dogs grilled by one of the Marines. As service members began their weekend leave so did we and we drove home with lots of memories and happy hearts.

In case you were wondering.... Yes, we will be holding our annual HOWL-LE-LU-YA Dog Biscuit Sale on December 13 and 20! We will have bags of 5 large or 12 small homemade dog biscuits at a steal at $5 a bag! Why not treat your favorite pup with a bag or two of healthy treats for Christmas? We are sure they will be thankful you did!

A Season of Joy and Thanksgiving

By Sue McCart
Chair, Preschool Education Board

It's hard to believe the holidays are upon us already! This is always a busy and exciting time at Little Lambs Preschool. The children are busy preparing for their annual Christmas Program, a special highlight of the holiday season. We invite you to join us on Thursday, December 17th, at 10:30 a.m. in the Sanctuary. This musical presentation is sure to warm your heart and set the tone for a Christ-filled Christmas season.

We have been celebrating our 25th anniversary since the school year began in August, and the celebration will continue through the end of the school year next May. As we look back, we want to recognize how far we have come and the many lives we have touched along the way. Since opening our doors in 2001, Little Lambs has served more than 1,000 preschool children! This milestone would not have been possible without the dedication of so many people who have volunteered countless hours over the years. In particular, we want to recognize and thank our Founding Preschool Committee:

- Nicole Beattie
- Sue Foisel
- Lois Kieninger
- Joe Louderback
- Marlene Ranck
- Rick Schmidt
- Katherine Sitler

Thank you for helping make Little Lambs what it is today!

We also extend our heartfelt thanks to everyone who has helped move forward with the renovation of our Small Playground. We are pleased to announce that the project is now fully funded! We will keep you updated as plans progress. Our goal is to complete the work while students are out of school. Depending on contractor availability, construction will take place during either the Christmas holiday break or spring break.

Little Lambs Preschool operates on a very limited budget, and we anticipate ending the year with a budget deficit. Every gift and every prayer makes a difference. Your support is about more than a financial contribution; it is an investment in children, families, and the future of this important ministry. Together, we can continue providing a faith-filled environment where young hearts are encouraged, families are supported, and the love of Christ is shared throughout the greater Seneca area.

May God continue to bless Little Lambs Preschool and all the children and families whose lives we are privileged to touch. Thank you for being part of our journey!

Little Lambs Preschool From Our Director

By Gina Cote

"For to us a child is born, to us a son is given..... And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace" Isaiah 9:6

We just ended our wonderful month of November where we spent time in thanksgiving for all our many blessings! We gathered with over 130 of our Little Lambs family in the Fellowship Hall for a delicious Thanksgiving Feast! How fortunate we are to be a part of this amazing community where we can share Fellowship and Food with one another.

And now we are beginning one of our favorite times of the year as we prepare for Christmas. Imagine being able to experience the season of Christmas through the eyes of a child. The wonder and awe! The anticipation of the birth of baby Jesus! The excitement and joy awaiting Santa and the presents under the Christmas tree!

We here at Little Lambs Preschool are fortunate to be able to participate in this season through the eyes of our beautiful children. Our Christmas celebration begins on December 1st with our annual candy house making. This event will be held downstairs in the big playroom of the preschool where the parents and grandparents will spend time with their child creating a beautiful candy house masterpiece made from candy and frosting! This will certainly put all of us into the Christmas Spirit!

On December 17th the children will share their musical gifts during our Christmas Program. This program will be held in the Sanctuary at 10:30 am. We will have a time of Fellowship following our program with cookies and treats in the Fellowship Hall.

We will be out of school from December 21st through January 4th for our Christmas vacation. The students return to school on January 5th.

As you enter this Christmas season we invite you to the Duke Power Company for the Festival of Trees.Little Lambs Preschool is participating in this wonderful event and would love for you to come and see our Christmas Tree. Voting for your favorite tree ends on January 8th!

Thank you for all your support for our preschool ministry! May Peace and Happiness reign in your home this Christmas and may the New Year be loaded with blessings for you and your family.

Stewardship News

In mid-November we placed our commitment forms on the altar. Whether or not you specified that you would attempt a new service, please review the various areas that are seeking assistance.

We always encourage everyone to find a way that they can serve within this ESLC congregation or in the community within their time and ability constraints. Every month in the Agapegram, JOBS, Joyous Opportunity for Believers, identifies ways to serve.

These volunteer positions are also posted in the Church Bulletin Board.

Do any of your likes, skills or passion coincide with the positions listed on the next page? If so, please contact the person identified. One reason that Eternal Shepherd is such a great community of believers is because of all the service that we freely give.

We have an urgent need for substitute School teachers in December and January. Can you help? Check the listing below.

Ministry of the Month - SCRIP

By Sue Hauser

Scrip is a gift card program that has existed at ESLC for over 25 years. The Scrip program involves providing gift cards to you at face value, while ESLC buys them at a discounted price.

For example, a $100 Ingles card costs ESLC $95.00. The church receives $5 from your purchase. Different gift cards return a different percentage to the church.

There are many types of gift cards available. A box labelled “Scrip” is found on a small table in the narthex by one of the front doors. Attached to the front of the box are order forms showing what gift cards are available and the parentage profit available for the church.

When you would like to order, simply fill out the form with the desired cards indicated and attach a check.

You can either give it to the Scrip lady identified in the Sunday bulletin or leave in the Scrip box. The requested gift cards will be delivered the following Sunday.

Through the years the Scrip funds have been used for many things. It helped pay down the mortgage in the early years. It has helped to pay for choir robes, the piano in the sanctuary, updates to the organ, carpet, tables and chairs for the Fellowship hall, and many other projects.

If you are thinking of using gift cards as presents for Christmas, please consider ordering them through SCRIP program which will make a donation the church at the same time.

Please see the Ministry of the Month Bulletin Board for much more information.

Feed The Hungry - Update

By Mark & Sandy Kunkel

- Thank you to all the volunteers for our last event in October. The hot meal was really appreciated on such a cold rainy day.
- Our next event is January 9th, 2027. A hot meal is planned and we will need volunteers to make chili or jambalaya or something hot that can be served in a bowl. We also need volunteers to help set-up, serve, and clean-up that morning at the Our Daily Bread Bistro, on 106 Jordan St, in Seneca. Plan to be there by 11am.
- Thank you for all your support!

DO YOU KNOW PRAYER SHAWLS ARE AVAILABLE FOR YOU TO GIVE?

- Eternal Shepherd provides prayer shawls FOR YOU to give to family and friends that are struggling, no matter the reason.
- These prayer shawls are made by women in our congregation who pray over them as they are being made.
- The prayer shawls come in all kinds of colors, patterns and shapes.
- Many people that should receive prayer shawls are not receiving them.
- No approval is needed to give these prayer shawls. They are available in a self-service kiosk in the Fellowship Hall by the closets. Look for the displayed prayer shawl.

HOW TO GIVE A PRAYER SHAWL

- There are three bins full of prayer shawls that are ready to give. Please select the one that you think the person would like to receive.
- Please give us your name, the date, and the person that you are giving it to on the sheet above the bin. That is all that is required.
- We request that you pray with the person that you give it to or by a note if you send it.
- It is that easy to give a prayer shawl.
- Thank you for helping us make sure that the people who need these prayer shawls receive them.

We have given over 225 prayer shawls since this program began.

TOYS FOR GOD'S KIDS:

The Smilemakers of ESLC have about wrapped up another year of making toy cars for the children of the world. A group of eight Smilemakers just finished assembling 700+ cars in preparation for upcoming requests from Mission Teams traveling to various areas of our world. This year we have distributed over 2000 toy cars through Mission Teams, Samaritan's Purse shoeboxes, and locally through our Feeding the Hungry and Seth Comfort Dog programs. These toy cars bring joy to children worldwide who do not have any toys to play with. The cars also bring a message of God's love as each is stamped with Toys for God's Kids on the bottom and each has USA on the bumper indicating where they came from.

The children see that there are folks from far away who love and care for them.

If you are a woodworker and have the equipment to prepare these cars for assembly we very much need your help. Please contact Mike Hauser or Pastor Ray for more information. Come help spread the love of Christ to children everywhere.

God Bless You.

MISSION BOARD NEWS: Exciting News from Haiti

By Lars Helland, Mission Board Chair

This was the graduating class from the Concordia Theological Seminary located at Laochikit. These Pastors and Deaconess's will work throughout the country of Haiti. The seminary is in fellowship with the LCMS and includes foreign students. Samuel built a church on his land called Pas Bonbon, and was the lay minister of that church. He is now an Ordained Pastor, and continues to grow both the church and school at Pas Bonbon.

The school currently has 320 students and we provide the lunch every day through Trinity HOPE located in Tennessee. We also support the staff financially and provided the funds to build the school restrooms and showers. The church and school at Laochikit are supported through Mt. Pisgah in Henderson, NC, and that is where Pastor Phil McLain was filling in while they searched for a new pastor. Pastor Phil introduced us to Pastor Walta. The real future of Haiti will have these Pastors and Deaconess's as the country's foundation. They will become "one nation under God".

Pastor Walta remains as our primary contact. He has visited ESLC several times and we honor his efforts in opening churches, schools, and preaching stations throughout Haiti. We also continue to provide Bibles and Luther's Small Catechism in both French and Creole.

ESLC is truly blessed to be a blessing – thank You All for your support.

Honduras Mission News

Our 2027 Mission Team is formed and a big THANK YOU to all who have contributed through "Helping Hands for Honduras" or by just designating your gift through ESLC. Your generosity will enable your team to again travel to Honduras to serve the people there and to bring them the message of God's love. It is a message that so many people throughout the world have not had the opportunity to hear. It is a message that your mission team is bringing to Honduras through their witness and through their work. It is a message that will change lives and bring them into a relationship with Jesus Christ. Everything is in place for the team to go and be about God's work in Honduras, but, there is one thing that is still needed and that is prayer.

We need to be in prayer for our team as they prepare to travel and as they travel for we know that the great positive work that they will do will be upsetting to the "evil one" and he will be striking out against them to try to disrupt their activity. Romans 8:28 tells us "And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose."

Our team is made up of those who love God and who have been called to this ministry in Honduras. God holds this team of servants in his hands as they go about serving him. Yes, it is three months until the mission but it is never too early to begin praying. Let the evil one know that it is time to get out of the way and let these missionaries be about God's business.

We have 25 missionaries traveling to Honduras this year and they will see over 2000 Hondurans and they will share with them the message that God loves them. Join them in prayer as they prepare to serve our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
Que Dios te bendiga! (May God Bless You!)

Operation Christmas Child News

By Operation Christmas Child Committee

As Christmas approaches, our minds turn to the traditions of the holiday: a decorated tree, and maybe the exterior of our home; shopping for gifts to wrap and give to those we love, and planning the meals we will share with family and friends. At church, we look forward to the day we celebrate the birth of our Savior. It is a busy season.

Meanwhile, around the world, cardboard boxes are traveling to places we can only imagine. They will be loaded on planes and ships, then to smaller planes, and smaller boats, and trucks. They may then be loaded on any number of exotic means of transportation, from motorbikes to camels or donkeys or even elephants! At the other end, those cartons will be opened, and out will come red and green shoeboxes, each one handed to a child who has never received one before, and will never receive one again. These once-in-a-lifetime gifts may be the only gift a child ever receives. Can you imagine? We bless our own children and grandchildren so often, it is hard to believe those little shoeboxes may be the only gift of a lifetime.

Inside, the overjoyed children find multiple gifts, some practical (like pencils or toothbrushes) to toys and stuffed animals. As much joy as those items bring, the best gift in the box is the story of the Gospel in their very own language. And that is the purpose of this whole operation: to share the Gospel to the ends of the Earth. Most of us cannot travel the world to evangelize, so we allow these boxes to do that for us.

This year, your generosity allowed us to pack 1,812 shoeboxes. Somewhere in the world, 1,812 children will experience the joy of receiving a gift and learn that someone, somewhere, cares about them. Then they will hear the Gospel, and be offered an opportunity to learn more.

So thank you to all of you who have donated, allowing us to purchase the items for the boxes. Thank you to all of you who helped assemble the school and toiletry kits that went into the boxes. Thank you to those who built little cars, unwrapped commercial packaging, assembled fishing kits, and the dozens of little jobs that go on behind the scenes. Every part is essential, and every part a gift. And many thanks to those who came out on Packing Day to stuff the shoeboxes (and stuff them we did!). Thank you to those who volunteered for National Collection Week, taking in the boxes packed by others, whether they came in one at a time or several hundred at a time. And thank you to those who will travel to the Atlanta warehouse to open hundreds of shoeboxes, checking to make sure each gift is appropriate and well-stuffed. Most of all, thank you for your prayers. God knows every child that will receive a box, and knows their needs. Somehow he manages to get just the right box to the right child. The stories we hear!

Shopping has already begun for next year's boxes. Pray with us that we can bless even more children.

FOOD BANK NEWS

Please help us in collecting preferred needed canned, or boxed grocery items each month to help restock the Golden Corner Food Pantry's shelves. December's preferred product is "Canned Tomatoes".

Please place your items in the containers marked "Food Bank" down by the Fellowship Hall.

Thank you for your generosity & suppport!
